300,000 MEN QUIT MINES

GENERAL STRIKE OCCURRED AT MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT.

COAL FAMINE NOT EXPECTED

Operators of Southwest Refuse to Grant Miners Wage Demands.
Many States Affected.

Indianapolis, March 31.—Three hundred thousand organized miners of the bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas quit work Thursday midnight, pending settlement of a new wage scale.

President Thomas L. Lewis of the miners' union declared a total of 300,000 miners had quit work.

Officers of the United Mine Workers of North America declared the walk-out was not a strike, but merely a suspension of work because no wage scale had been made to replace the old scale, which expired with the month of March. The miners demand an increase of pay in some instances of 5 cents a ton and in other instances more, with certain changes in working conditions.

Confidence was expressed by the operators that there would be no general coal famine, large supplies of fuel having been stored in anticipation of the walkout.

While the miners predict the suspension will be cut short by a prompt signing of wage scales, some of the operators maintain that the mines may be kept closed for a month, or longer.

The first settlement came in an announcement from Basil, Ind., the center of the Indiana black coal field, where the men's demands for a 5-cent increase was granted.

The conditions in the various states as reported to the national union headquarters follow:

Illinois—900 mines closed and 75,000 miners out; joint conference on wages called for Monday in Chicago; operators say men demand increase of 10 cents a ton; possibility of a four month's shutdown; two month's supplies of coal on hand; no immediate coal famine to Chicago industries.

Indiana—18,000 miners out; conference arranged for Wednesday at Terre Haute.

Pennsylvania—40,000 men ordered out; temporary scale expected by Saturday; settlement of the powder question to be held in abeyance.

Iowa—Every mine in Iowa ordered closed pending settlement of the wage scale.

Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, comprising the southwestern interstate fields—35,000 miners quit; early settlement expected; miners assert they have $400,000 to fight with.

Ohio—All miners ordered to quit; state leader declares it is brief suspension; at Lorain steel plant shut down and threw out 4,000 workmen because of coal shortage.

Oklahoma—13,000 men have been called out in Oklahoma. Operators assert mines will probably be closed for some time, as they cannot meet the demand for an increase in wages.

METEOR AS GREAT BALL OF FIRE

Visitor From Sky Strikes Earth,
Causes Quake.

Missoula, Mont., March 31.—The flashing of a brilliant meteor, having the appearance of a great ball of fire shooting through the sky, spread panic over Western Montana late Tuesday evening. That it dashed into the earth somewhere above Ravalli on the Flathead Indian reservation was the conclusion drawn from the distant jar felt throughout this sections of the country. The electrical disturbance extinguished all lights in Dixon, Arlee and Perma. The Indians who witnessed the spectacle and felt the quake were in a state of terror. So brilliant was the meteor that an engineer on the Northern Pacific railroad, who was running out of Arlee, threw on the air brakes and stopped his train, believing that he had missed a block signal or that there was another train with electric headlights on ahead.

SIX KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

CATASTROPHE OCCURS NEAR THE
TOWN OF WILBURTON.

Work Just Finished, but for Dynamite Men Would Have Emerged for Last Day.

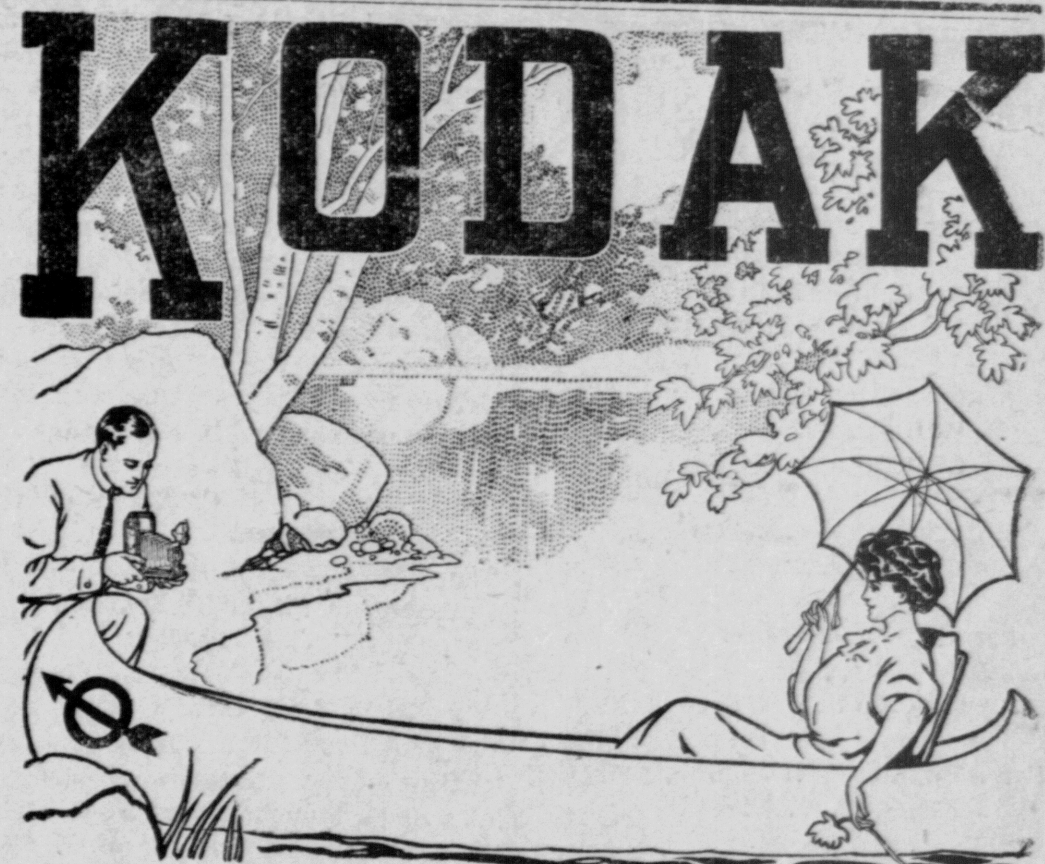

Wilburton, Okla., March 31.—A terrific explosion occurred at 3 a. m. today in the lowest vein of coal mine No. 2, Smithtown, owned by William Busby and associates, in which six of the oldest and most experienced miners of the Wilburton district were instantly killed. List of the dead: William Phalen, Thad Cunningham, Julius Boyd, Menj. Hoffman, William McMahan and M. Belcher.

The cause of the explosion has not been definitely determined but it is generally supposed to have been a "windy shot" which in turn set off a twenty-five pound box of dynamite which is claimed by some to have been left in the mine.

The six miners had just finished their last day's work before going out upon suspension pending an agreement of wages and the rope rider had sent down an empty car to bring them to the surface and had himself gone home. The pump man had also just come out and was a hundred yards away when the explosion took place and the six men who had been engaged upon the night shift in sinking the slope were all that remained in the mine at the time.

When the bodies were brought to the top it was found they had been literally cooked and that the force of the explosion had blown the coal dust into the flesh. In some cases the skin from the back of their hands and fingers was hanging in shreds. The short space of two minutes more and the car would have been at the top and their lives saved.

William Phalen, one of the dead men, was one of the best posted Masons in eastern Oklahoma, and the rest of the men were among the town's best citizens and were held in high esteem. A particularly sad feature of the catastrophe was that of Belcher, who was killed together with his two sons-in-law, leaving three widows in one family. A total of twenty-two children were left orphans.

MISSIONARY VISITS ADA

LECTURES AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Miss Ellen Stone, for Six Months Held
by Turkish Brigands for Ransom, Gives Her Experiences While
a Captive.

The large auditorium of the First Methodist church was crowded to overflowing last night to hear Miss Ellen Stone relate her experience as a missionary and captive by Turkish brigands, demanding a ransom of $65,000 for her release.

She is a most pleasing speaker and held her audience spell-bound for more than an hour.

A great many of our people are familiar with the capture of Miss Stone in 1901, and the wonder is how she lived through the six months of torture and privations pending the payment of the ransom. It is her intention to return to Turkey and resume her missionary work as soon as congress makes final settlement with the parties who secured her release.

Her lecture was indeed a treat to the citizenship of Ada.

THE MAYOR AND ENGINEER AT BYRD'S MILL

Bring Back Specimens of Water For Analysis.

Mayor Little and City Engineer
Eckman went to Byrd's Mill Thursday and procured specimens of water from three different points in the Byrd's Mill stream.

These gentlemen also procured specimens of a mineral that had formed in the mill race which, when analysed will disclose those properties which might be objectionable to the various industries using the water in their boilers.

It is interesting, however, and fortunate as well that this formation is not evident above a point one mile below the head of the spring.

Steps will be taken at once to ascertain the elevations or general topography of the earth between Ada and this water supply.

Specimens of both water and stone
may be seen at the News office.

Meeting of 25,000 Club Postponed.

Since it is impossible for some who are interested in the chautauqua for Ada to be in the city tonight the meeting of the 25,000 Club will be postponed until next week. Watch for notice.

Cook Believed to Be in New York City

New York, March 31.—The latest report about Dr. Cook the vanishing polar explorer, has it that he is in New York City and has been here for several days. Friends of the explorer are quoted as authority for the statement that he spent last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
Elmer Dudley, Mrs. Cook's sister, who lives on East Eighteenth street.
Mrs. Cook and the children are said to have been with him. Later in the day, it is said, the family departed for a remote section of the city, their destination being unknown only to immediate relatives. The Dudleys decline either to confirm or deny the report.

$25,000 IS PRICE FOR

HEART OF DEAD MAN

New York, March 31.—Because the body of the son she loved was robbed of its heart, Mrs. Mary Hassard has brought suit for $25,000 against Dr. Timothy D. Lehane, coroner's physician. She charges that Dr. Lehane performed an autopsy on the body and in so doing illegally abstracted and retained the heart. Julius Harburger, a former coroner, testified today that he had ordered Dr. Lehane to return the heart to the relatives.

INCREASE IN NAVY BIG

DRAG ON THE TREASURY

Washington, March 31.—An additional estimate of $2,000,000 on account of the increase in the navy, was submitted to the house today. It embraces $1,000,000 on account of hulls and outfits and steam machinery of two colliers in the navy department's proposed building program, the amount required for the first year, and $1,000,000 on account of submarine torpedo boats, the amount required for the first year for five boats.

Tobacco Workers of Kentucky Strike.

Louisville, Ky., March 31.—More than 3,000 white and negro men, women and children employed in the American Tobacco company's stemmeries went on a strike Thursday for higher wages. Twice today the police were called to keep the strikers and their followers orderly, as they marched from one factory to another.
Ten arrests were made. Nearly 5,000 other employees threaten to strike in the plug tobacco and cigar departments.

MAIL ORDER HOUSES

SECRETARY SANGSTER IS SUP-PLYING RETAILERS ASSO-CIATION.

The Commandments Indicate the Business
Ide of the Mail Order Concerns.

The following is a bulletin which Secretary Sangster is sending to the members of the local Retailers' Association.
It contains some logical matters:

If you hear some fellow cursing the association or credit manager, ask him how much it cost him to get acquainted with him, and who introduced him.

Commandments of the Mail Order House.

Following are the twelve commandments which thoroughly indicate the business side of the mail order concern:

1. You shall sell your farm products for cash wherever you can, but not to us; we do not buy from you.

2. You shall believe our statements and buy all that you need from us because we want to be good to you, although we are not acquainted with you.

3. You shall send the money in advance to give us a chance to get the goods from the factory with your money, and meanwhile you will have to wait patiently a few weeks, because that is our business method.

4. You shall advertise us at all times and in all places.

5. You shall buy your church bells and interior decorations and fixtures from us and forward the money in advance, for that is our business method.

6. You shall collect from the business men in your vicinity as much money as you can for the benefit of your churches. Although we get more money from you than they do, still it is against our rules to donate money to country churches.

7. You shall buy tools from us and be your own mechanic for your vicinity for we wish it so.

8. You shall induce your neighbors to buy every thing from us for we have room for more money.

9. You shall often look at the beautiful pictures in our catalogue, so your wishes will increase and you will send in big orders, although you have no immediate use for the goods, otherwise you might have some money left to buy necessary goods of your local merchants.

10. You shall have the mechanic who repairs the goods you buy from us back the bill, so that you can send the money for his labor to us for new goods; otherwise he will not notice our influence.

11. You shall believe us in preference to your local merchants.

12. You shall, in case of accident, sickness or need, apply to local dealers for credit, as we do not know you.—Ex.

Dangerous Crisis in Balkin Only Temporarily Averted.

Paris, March 31.—Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly, but, perhaps, temporarily, according to the views in well-informed diplomatic circles here, where for months it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia, either to win the Province outright or at least to secure autonomy for the remainder of European Turkey.

Bulgaria for years has made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses, always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that their army is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brothers in Macedonia should remain under the domination of Turkey.

They realize that they cannot long sustain the burden of the army on its present footing. For the King, also, a successful war would mean the consolidation of the position of a dynasty imposed upon the Bulgarian people by the Powers. For both the king and the people, therefore, it appeared to be "now or never."

The moment, however, was singularly unpropitious, because Europe today unanimously supports the regime of the Young Turks at Constantinople and desires to give it a fair chance to regenerate Turkey. The last hope of King Ferdinand and the Bulgarian government disappeared when the King recently visited St. Petersburg and found that Russia refused to give either sympathy or support to an appeal to arms at this time. Bulgaria has yielded, but as understood here, only to see what diplomacy can do.

HEAVY SNOW IN THE ROCKIES.

Aera From New Mexico to Wyoming in Grasp of Storm.

Denver, March 30.—Heavy rains and snow and high winds are sweeping the entire Rocky mountain region north of central New Mexico today. Telegraph service has been seriously interfered with, and for several hours central Colorado was all but cut off from the outside world.

Heavy snow is reported at Santa Fe, N. M., with a temperature of 24 above, a drop of 32 degrees since yesterday. The snow extends all the way to central Wyoming, Durango, Telluride and other mountain cities of Colorado report heavy snow, and the storm in Denver almost took on the proportions of a mid-winter blizzard.

Principal of One of the Ward Schools Refuses to Vacate.

Muskogee, Okla., March 30.—Muskogee has a professor, principal of one of the ward schools, who refuses to be "fired" by the board of education. His name is F. M. Kimes, and he came from Kansas, Ill., last September. The board demanded Prof. Kimes's resignation, and elected a new man to succeed him, Prof. C. K. Clark, of Tahlequah. The next morning Prof. Kimes and Prof. Clark both went to the Jefferson school and each insisted that he was principal. Kimes claims that he has a contract which provides his services shall not be terminated except upon thirty days' notice, which he has not been given, and intimates that he is still principal of the school, that he proposes to indicate his willingness to serve and that the board is liable for his salary.

FIVE MILLION FOR BEANS.

Boston's Bill Shows an Increase of More Than Half.

Boston, March 29.—The price of Boston's favorite and noted edible—baked beans—has increased more than 33 1-3 per cent during the past two years and caused a decrease in the consumption of approximately 9 per cent. Two years ago beans retailed at 7 and 8 cents per quart, while they now cost 10 and 11 cents. Boston's bean bill in 1909 was nearly $5,000,000, an increase of about $1,700,000 over the previous year, notwithstanding the decrease in the amount used.

Whipped Cream Cakes.

A cup of sugar and two tablespoons of butter creamed together. Add the beaten yolks of two eggs, four tablespoons of milk, a teaspoonful of vanilla, and, finally the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Mix into a cup of flour a teaspoonful of cream of tartar and a half teaspoonful of soda. Sift the flour into the cake batter and stir lightly. Bake in a shallow pan. When the cake has cooled off spread over it half a pint of cream sweetened and whipped to a stiff froth.

When Making Doughnuts.

Doughnuts are much improved if they are coated with a layer of sugar as soon as they are taken from the stove. The best way to powder them is to put a small amount of confectioner's sugar in a paper bag and put several doughnuts in the bag at a time and then shake the bag, holding the top of the bag closed. This will coat them with sugar quickly and more evenly than any other way.

Mock Olives.

Take green plums before they begin to change color, wash and place in weak brine for 24 hours, drain and put in another brine, adding a small teaspoonful of soda to each gallon of water. Bring to a boil, when the plums will turn to an olive color. Pack at once in jars, and fill with the boiling brine brimming full, seal at once. Let stand several weeks before using.

Luncheon Dish.

Fry bacon until it is crisp, then remove from frying pan and fry cold diced potatoes until brown or raw diced potatoes until well done. Just before removing from the fire add three or four eggs and scramble all together. Serve on hot platter and garnish with parsley.

To Whiten Linens.

Put to soak overnight in water in which has been dissolved one teaspoonful of cream of tartar to every quart of water. When ironed they will be snow white.

Ironing Blankets.

Use a small whisk broom, brushing when dry on the line, not too hard, and in one direction. This raises the nap and they appear like new.

Notice to Sewer Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received at the office of W. B. Jones, City Clerk, Ada, Oklahoma, up to 5 o'clock P. M., April 4th, 1910, for the construction of a Lateral sewer in District No. 3 comprising certain portions of Sunrise, Donaghey, Normal Heights, Capitol Hill and Dan Hays additions, all in the city of Ada, Oklahoma, according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of 3 per cent of the amount bid to be forfeited to the city of Ada in case the successful bidder fails to enter into and give the required bond in the required time.

Contractors will be required to give a bond in the sum of 30 per cent of the contract price for the faithful performance of said work and the holding of the city harmless from any and all damages which might occur.

Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. (SEAL) W. B. JONES, City Clerk. (First Pub. March 23, 1910—10td)

The Schoolma'am's Strategy

By MRS. C. F. VAN PEARSE

Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do man, and Mrs. Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do woman, but the sons of the family, Nathan and Ben, although good workers, well versed in the lore of their father's calling, and able to "turn a furrow" straight as a "bee line," were becoming more and more dissatisfied with home life—were growing fond of spending their rainy days and spare evenings at the village near the farm—were occasionally guilty of coming home with the odor of tobacco smoke and vile whisky upon their breaths; and this it was that troubled the father and mother and caused heartaches and wrinkles.

One November evening, as the old folks were sitting silent and alone by the kitchen fire, a knock was heard at the door, and to the summons to "come in!" a neighbor thrust in his head and exclaimed:

"Hain't time to stop, friends; been over to the store, and the postmaster gave me this letter for you—so I'll just hand it in, and be going on," and after a few more words the neighbor went his way.

The letter was for Mr. Peachblow, and the following is an exact copy of it:

"Princeton, November 1. "Dear Uncle: I have graduated at last, and am anxious to teach a country school this winter. If your district is not already supplied with a teacher please use your influence to secure your school for me. As you are one of the directors, and a good, kind uncle besides, I shall expect to hear a favorable answer soon. All well at home. Your affectionate niece,

"MARY BROWN."

The result of this epistle was that Miss Mary Brown was installed, some three weeks after its receipt, in the teacher's chair of the Peachblow district school.

Mary was a shrewd girl, warm-hearted and sympathetic, and she had not been long in her uncle's family before she discovered the state of affairs regarding the "boys," and determined to make an effort to change it for the better.

Nathan and Ben were both half in love with their pretty cousin, and she knew right well that she could influence them in the wished-for direction if anyone could—provided their mother would be co-operator. Accordingly, one Saturday afternoon, when the brothers appeared, "booted and spurred," in readiness for their usual Saturday visit to the village lounging place, she ran after them to the gate with the request that they would not fail to call at the post office and bring her the expected letter from home.

"And don't keep me waiting long, please, for I'm really homesick for a letter!" and back she darted into the house.

"Now, auntie, I'm going to tell you a secret. I have noticed how it worries you to have the boys staying out evenings with that idle set in the village. Mamma was troubled in the same way for a time when Brother Charlie was younger, and we broke it up by tempting him to stay at home. Now, don't be offended, auntie—you know I love you dearly, and wouldn't hurt your feelings for the world—but don't you think it rather dull for Nat and Ben, such bright, active boys, to sit down in the kitchen every evening without anything to interest or amuse them? Uncle takes only the country paper, there are very few books in the house, in fact, they are almost compelled to go from home in search of variety and recreation. I propose that for the remainder of the winter we have a cheerful fire in the sitting room every evening, that we have a good literary paper, and a couple of entertaining magazines to read, and that we make ourselves so exceedingly agreeable here at home that the boys will enjoy staying with us. Shall we, auntie?"

Mrs. Peachblow was a sensible woman, and she readily saw that there was "something in it," so she replied: "I'm willing to do anything in the world to keep my boys at home, and we will try your plan."

So Mary made a cheery fire in the prim and little-used sitting room. As the tidy tea table in the kitchen was ready for supper Nathan and Ben came in.

"Are you expecting company, Cousin Mary?" asked Nathan. "I see t'other room lighted up!"

"We did expect company this evening, and I am happy to say we were not disappointed!" said Mary, laughingly, at the same time extending her hand for the package Ben was trying to extract from his overcoat pocket.

The package proved to be some well-preserved copies of a weekly and a few magazines which Mary had requested her mother to send to her, and after supper the whole family gathered around the center table in the sitting room and passed the evening in reading and talking over the contents of the various publications. Before a week passed by Farmer Peachblow subscribed for the weekly. The sons have acquired a taste for reading, books, magazines and papers have increased upon the premises; they seem to think home a pleasant place, and have discarded the acquaintances who once served to amuse their leisure hours; the old folks no longer worry lest the young folks prove unworthy scions or sprouts of the Peachblow stock, and this happy reform is entirely owing to the schoolma'am's strategy.

FOR YOUR HAIR. Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Gwin & Mays Drug Co., West Main St.

COAL FAMINE NOT EXPECTED

Operators of Southwest Refuse to Grant Miners Wage Demands.
Many States Affected.

Indianapolis March 31—Three hundred thousand organized miners of the bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas quit work Thursday midnight, pending settlement of a new wage scale.

President Thomas L. Lewis of the miners union declared a total of 300-000 miners had quit work.

Officers of the United Mine Workers of North America declared the walk-out was not a strike but merely a suspension of work because no wage scale had been made to replace the old scale which expired with the month of March. The miners demand an increase of 15¢ in some instances of 25¢ a ton and in other cases in times more with certain changes in working conditions.

Confidence was expressed by the operators that there would be no general coal famine large supplies of fuel having been stored in anticipation of the walkout.

While the miners predict the suspension will be cut short by a prompt signing of wage scales some of the operators maintain that the mines may be kept closed for a month or longer.

The first settlement came in an announcement from Basil Ind. the center of the Indiana black coal field where the men's demands for a 50 cent increase was granted.

The conditions in the various states as reported to the national union headquarters follow:

Illinois—900 mines closed and 75-000 miners out joint conference on wages called for Monday in Chicago operators say men demand increase of 10 cents a ton possibility of a four months shutdown two months supplies of coal on hand no immediate coal famine to Chicago industries.

Indiana—18 000 miners out conference arranged for Wednesday at Terre Haute.

Pennsylvania—40 000 men ordered out temporary scale expected by Saturday settlement of the powder question to be held in abeyance.

Iowa—Every mine in Iowa ordered closed pending settlement of the wage scale.

Missouri Kansas Oklahoma and Arkansas comprising the southwestern interstate fields—30 000 miners quit early settlement expected miners assert they have $400 000 to fight with.

Ohio—All miners ordered to quit state leader declares it is brief suspension at Lorain steel plant shut down and threw out 4 000 workmen because of coal shortage.

Oklahoma—13 000 men have been called out in Oklahoma Operators assert mines will probably be closed for some time as they cannot meet the demand for an increase in wages.

METEOR AS GREAT BALL OF FIRE

Visitor From Sky Strikes Earth,
Causes Quake.

Missoula Mont. March 31—The flashing of a brilliant meteor having the appearance of a great ball of fire shooting through the sky spread panic over Western Montana late Tuesday evening. That it dashed into the earth somewhere above Ravalli on the Flathead Indian reservation was the conclusion drawn from the distant jar felt throughout this sections of the country. The electrical disturbance extinguished all lights in Dixon Arlee and Perma.
The Indians who witnessed the spectacle and felt the quake were in a state of terror. So brilliant was the meteor that an engineer on the Northern Pacific railroad, who was running out of Arlee threw on the air brakes and stopped his train believing that he had missed a block signal or that there was another train with electric headlights on ahead.

SIX KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

TOWN OF WILBURTON.

Work Just Finished, but for Dynamite Men Would Have Emerged for Last Day.

Wilburton Okla. March 31—A terrific explosion occurred at 3 a m today in the lowest vein of coal mine No 2 Smithtown owned by William Busby and associates in which six of the oldest and most experienced miners of the Wilburton district were instantly killed. List of the dead William Phalen 17ad Cunningham Julius Boyd Menj Hoffman William McMahan and M. Belcher.

The cause of the explosion has not been definitely determined but it is generally supposed to have been a windy shot which in turn set off a twenty five pound box of dynamite which is crumpled by some to have been left in the mine.

The six miners had just finished their last day's work before going out upon suspension pending an agreement of wages and the rope rider had sent down an empty car to bring them to the surface and had himself gone home. The pump man had also just come out and was a hundred yards away when the explosion took place and the six men who had been engaged upon the night shift in sinking the slope were all that remained in the mine at the time.

When the bodies were brought to the top it was found they had been literally cooked and that the force of the explosion had blown the coal dust into the flesh. In some cases the skin from the back of their hands and fingers was hanging in shreds. The short space of two minutes more and the car would have been at the top and their lives saved.

William Phalen one of the dead men was one of the best posted Masons in eastern Oklahoma and the rest of the men were among the town's best citizens and were held in high esteem. A particularly sad feature of the catastrophe was that of Belcher, who was killed together with his two sons-in-law leaving three widows in one family. A total of twenty-two children were left orphans.

garet Hardin Craig was buried in Al-derbrook cemetery near Desha yester-

SOUTH MISSOURI ORCHARDS BURNED

FOREST FIRES SWEEP OVER THE COUNTRY.

Rains Bring Relief to the Stricken Districts, Live Stock and Farm Houses Destroyed.

Springfield, Mo., March 30.—The sprinkle of rain which fell in Southwest Missouri today assailed a great deal in stopping the forest fires that have been raging in several counties for the past several days. Yesterday seems to have been the worst day since the place broke out in the different sections. The high winds were responsible for the damage. The greatest damage done was near Kosh-konong, Oregon county, where all the buildings on the McNair fruit farm company were destroyed together with many fruit trees. The company is headed by J. C. McNair, a St. Louis capitalist. This damage was done early this morning. Owing to the fact there were but few persons available at the time to fight the flames the contents of the buildings were destroyed.
The company of which Mr. McNair is president owns about 2,200 acres of orchards near St. Elmo. Most of the land is set in peach trees of the Elberta variety. Many of the peach trees were in full bloom and the prospects were flattering for a large yield. The passing of the fire left acres of charred trees.
The wind was blowing a gale at the time the fire crossed from the timber to the orchards. A portion of the farm of the Few Acres Company also was visited by the fire. A packing shed and other small buildings were in the path of the fire and were consumed, the loss in and around the McNair orchard being about $250-000.
The present drought is the worst ever known in this section of the Ozark country for early spring. The hot winds have burned vegetation to a crisp and in the timber belt the dry leaves on the ground cause fire to spread rapidly. The large and small trees alike falling victims to the fierce heat. The damage already has reached hundreds of thousands of dollars.
A telephone message from West Plains tonight says that there was no rain in that section today and that the fire is still raging in Oregon county but that there is no fire in Howell county as has been reported.
Much damage is reported in Ozark county and it is said that a number of farm houses have been destroyed
as well as quite a lot of livestock having been burned to death. Reports from Galena, Stone county state that the rain which is falling there tonight has checked the fire and that no further damage is expected.

TAFT DISCUSSES POWER OF EASTERN STATES

SAYS CONGRESSMEN ARE KEPT
MANY YEARS AT CAPITAL.

States Gain in Influence by Having Experienced Representatives.

Washington, March 31.—President
Taft, in an address before the Ohio
Society of Washington tonight pointed out that the dominating power of the Eastern States of Congress lies in the fact that they keep men in office when they place them there. He contrasted the influence of the East in legislative affairs with that of the West, and attributed the supremacy of the former to the continuous service of legislative representatives.
"Why is it asked the President,
'when the small states of the East exercise so much power in Congress?'"
"It is not because an Eastern man has any more capacity in the matter of legislation than a Western man—certainly not more than an Ohio
man. It is because when the Eastern States get a good representative they keep him as long as he lives and then he has an influence that vastly exceeds the mere numerical representation of population."

"I don't know whether this is quite germane to the subject of this occasion. I feel as though we are all interested in having Ohio make herself felt in the legislation of this country by adopting a system that will certainly bring about the weight she is entitled to."

When the president had concluded
Senator Dick who was on the platform, grasped his hand and shook it enthusiastically. The senator, whose term expires with this congress and who has a hard fight ahead for re-election said something to Mr. Taft who laughed aloud and said to the assembly of men and women from his native state.

"Senator Dick has just told me he heartily indorses everything I have said on this subject."

Ohio Society in Washington.
The president was the guest of honor at the meeting called for the purpose of organizing an Ohio society in Washington. Justice William R. Day presided and subsequently was elected president of the society.

Other speakers of the evening were
Senator Dick and Gen. Isaac R.
Sherwood and J. Warren Keifer. The Ohio society was formally organized with Justice Day as president, O. P.
Austin, chief of the Bureau of Statistics, secretary, and Frederick Eichelberger treasurer.

AFFAIRS OF THE FIVE TRIBES TO BE SPEEDILY CLOSED UP.

Strong Opposition Is Expected From Certain Republican Senators.
LaFollette and Curtis Favor
Measure.

Washington, March 31.—Secretary Dallinger after a conference with President Taft told members of the Oklahoma delegation today that the president is anxious to have the affairs of the Five Civilized Tribes closed up speedily and would have the bill provide for the disposition of the segregated coal lands somewhat like coal lands are now disposed of by the general government in the west—to the best bidder—
with the limitation that one man shall not control more than 2,560 acres. The President's idea it is said is to dispose of the matter speedily and in a business-like way yet at the same time with ample protection to the Indians and with a provision limiting the holdings in order to keep the coal from falling into the hands of the monopoly.
It is expected that Secretary Ballinger will shortly recommend to the House Committee on Indian Affairs
the passage of the Creager bill with certain modifications of the provision for the sale of the coal lands.
Such a bill, it is understood, would

LIVE STOCK PRICES SLUMP.

A Still Further Reduction Is Anticipated.

Kansas City, March 30.—Declines
of 10 to 20 cents a hundred pounds on prices of cattle and hogs at the stock yards today caused much discussion as to whether the maximum quotations in the extraordinary recent advances in the markets have been reached. Cattle sold 25 to 30 cents a hundred pounds below the high prices of last week. The setback was due partly to a moderate increase in supplies but the more important cause was that the high prices together with the unusual mild weather for this season of the year have curtailed the consumption of meat.

MISSIONARY VISITS ADA

CHURCH TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Miss Ellen Stone, for Six Months Held
by Turkish Brigands for Ransom, Gives Her Experiences While
a Captive.

The large auditorium of the First Methodist church was crowded to overflowing last night to hear Miss Ellen Stone relate her experience as a missionary and captive by Turkish brigands, demanding a ransom of $65,000 for her release

She is a most pleasing speaker and
held her audience spell-bound for more than an hour

A great many of our people are
familiar with the capture of Miss Stone in 1901 and the wonder is
how she lived through the six months
of torture and privations pending the payment of the ransom It is her intention to return to Turkey and resume her missionary work as soon as congress makes final settlement with the parties who secured her release

Her lecture was indeed a treat to
the citizenship of Ada

THE MAYOR AND ENGINEER AT BYRD'S MILL

Bring Back Specimens of Water For Analysis.

Mayor Little and City Engineer
Eckman went to Byrd's Mill Thursday and procured specimens of water from three different points in the Byrd's Mill stream

These gentlemen also procured
specimens of a mineral that had formed in the mill race which when analysed will disclose those properties which might be objectionable to the various industries using the water in their boilers

It is interesting however and fortunate as well that this formation is
not evident above a point one mile
below the head of the spring

Steps will be taken at once to ascertain the elevations or general topography of the earth between Ada
and this water supply

Specimens of both water and stone
may be seen at the News office

Bulgarian Crisis in Balkan Only Temporarily Averted.

Paris, March 31.—Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly, but, perhaps, temporarily, averted. The views in well-informed diplomatic circles here, where for months it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia, either to win the Province outright or at least to secure autonomy for the remainder of European Turkey.

Bulgaria for years has made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses, always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that their army is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brothers in Macedonia should remain under the domination of Turkey.

They realize that they cannot long sustain the burden of the army on its present footing. For the King, also, a successful war would mean the consolidation of the position of a dynasty imposed upon the Bulgarian people by the Powers. For both the king and the people, therefore, it appeared to be "now or never."

The moment, however, was singularly unpropitious, because Europe today unanimously supports the regime of the Young Turks at Constantinople and desires to give it a fair chance to regenerate Turkey. The last hope of King Ferdinand and the Bulgarian government disappeared when the King recently visited St. Petersburg and found that Russia refused to give either sympathy or support to an appeal to arms at this time. Bulgaria has yielded, but as understood here, only to see what diplomacy can do.

HEAVY SNOW IN THE ROCKIES.

Aera From New Mexico to Wyoming in Grasp of Storm.

Denver, March 30.—Heavy rains and snow and high winds are sweeping the entire Rocky mountain region north of central New Mexico today. Telegraph service has been seriously interfered with, and for several hours central Colorado was all but cut off from the outside world.

Heavy snow is reported at Santa Fe, N. M., with a temperature of 21 above, a drop of 32 degrees since yesterday. The snow extends all the way to central Wyoming, Durango, Telluride and other mountain cities of Colorado report heavy snow, and the storm in Denver almost took on the proportions of a mid-winter blizzard.

Principal of One of the Ward Schools Refuses to Vacate.

Muskogee, Okla., March 30.—Muskogee has a professor, principal of one of the ward schools, who refuses to be "fired" by the board of education. His name is F. M. Kimes, and he came from Kansas, Ill., last September. The board demanded Prof. Kimes's resignation, and elected a new man to succeed him, Prof. C. K. Clark, of Tahlequah. The next morning Prof. Kimes and Prof. Clark both went to the Jefferson school and each insisted that he was principal. Kimes claims that he has a contract which provides his services shall not be terminated except upon thirty days' notice, which he has not been given, and intimates that he is still principal of the school, that he proposes to indicate his willingness to serve, and that the board is liable for his salary.

FIVE MILLION FOR BEANS.

Boston's Bill Shows an Increase of More Than Half.

Boston, March 29.—The price of Boston's favorite and noted edible—baked beans—has increased more than 33 1-3 per cent during the past two years and caused a decrease in the consumption of approximately 9 per cent. Two years ago beans retailed at 7 and 8 cents per quart, while they now cost 10 and 11 cents. Boston's bean bill in 1909 was nearly $5,000,000, an increase of about $1,700,000 over the previous year, notwithstanding the decrease in the amount used.

Whipped Cream Cakes.
A cup of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of butter creamed together. Add the beaten yolks of two eggs, four tablespoonfuls of milk, a teaspoonful of vanilla, and finally the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Mix into a cup of flour a teaspoonful of cream of tartar and a half teaspoonful of soda. Sift the flour into the cake batter and stir lightly. Bake in a shallow pan. When the cake has cooled off spread over it half a pint of cream sweetened and whipped to a stiff froth.

When Making Doughnuts.
Doughnuts are much improved if they are coated with a layer of sugar as soon as they are taken from the stove. The best way to powder them is to put a small amount of confectioner's sugar in a paper bag and put several doughnuts in the bag at a time and then shake the bag, holding the top of the bag closed. This will coat them with sugar quickly and more evenly than any other way.

Mock Olives.
Take green plums before they begin to change color, wash and place in weak brine for 24 hours, drain and put in another brine adding a small teaspoonful of soda to each gallon of water. Bring to a boil, when the plums will turn to an olive color. Pack at once in jars, and fill with the boiling brine brimming full, seal at once. Let stand several weeks before using.

Luncheon Dish.
Fry bacon until it is crisp, then remove from frying pan and fry cold diced potatoes until brown or raw diced potatoes until all done. Just before removing from fire add three or four eggs, scramble all together. Serve on a platter and garnish with parsley.

To Whiten Linens.
Put to soak over night in water in which has been dissolved one teaspoonful of cream of tartar to every quart of water. When ironed they will be snow white.

Ironing Blankets.
Use a small whisk broom, brushing when dry on the line, not too hard, and in one direction. This raises the nap and they appear like new.

The Schoolma'am's Strategy

By MRS. C. F. VAN PEARSE

Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do man, and Mrs. Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do woman, but the sons of the family, Nathan and Ben, although good workers, well versed in the lore of their father's calling, and able to "turn a furrow" straight as a "bee line," were becoming more and more dissatisfied with home life—were growing fond of spending their rainy days and spare evenings at the village near the farm—were occasionally guilty of coming home with the odor of tobacco smoke and vile whisky upon their breaths; and this, it was that troubled the father and mother and caused heartaches and wrinkles.

One November evening, as the old folks were sitting silent and alone by the kitchen fire, a knock was heard at the door, and to the summons "come in!" a neighbor thrust in his head and exclaimed:

"Hain't time to stop, friends; been over to the store, and the postmaster gave me this letter for you—so I'll just hand it in, and be going on," and after a few more words the neighbor went his way.

The letter was for Mr. Peachblow, and the following is an exact copy of it:

"Princeton, November 1.
"Dear Uncle: I have graduated at last, and am anxious to teach a country school this winter. If your district is not already supplied with a teacher please use your influence to secure your school for me. As you are one of the directors, and a good, kind uncle besides, I shall expect to hear a favorable answer soon. All well at home. Your affectionate niece,
"MARY BROWN"

The result of this epistle was that Miss Mary Brown was installed, some three weeks after its receipt, in the teacher's chair of the Peachblow district school.

Mary was a shrewd girl, warm-hearted and sympathetic, and she had not been long in her uncle's family before she discovered the state of affairs regarding the "boys," and determined to make an effort to change it for the better.

Nathan and Ben were both half in love with their pretty cousin, and she knew right well that she could influence them in the wished-for direction if anyone could—provided their mother would be co-operator. Accordingly, one Saturday afternoon, when the brothers appeared, "booted and spurred," in readiness for their usual Saturday visit to the village lounging place, she ran after them to the gate with the request that they would not fail to call at the post office and bring her the expected letter from home.

"Now, auntie, I'm going to tell you a secret. I have noticed how it worries you to have the boys staying out evenings with that idle set in the village. Mamma was troubled in the same way for a time when Brother Charlie was younger, and we broke it up by tempting him to stay at home. Now, don't be offended, auntie—you know I love you dearly, and wouldn't hurt your feelings for the world—but don't you think it rather dull for Nat and Ben, such bright, active boys, to sit down in the kitchen every evening without anything to interest or amuse them? Uncle takes only the country paper, there are very few books in the house, there are no musical instruments, and, in fact, they are almost compelled to go from home in search of variety and recreation. I propose that for the remainder of the winter we have a cheerful fire in the sitting room every evening, that we have a good literary paper, and a couple of entertaining magazines to read, and that we make ourselves so exceedingly agreeable here at home that the boys will enjoy staying with us. Shall we, auntie?"

Mrs. Peachblow was a sensible woman, and she readily saw that there was "something in it," so she replied: "I'm willing to do anything in the world to keep my boys at home, and we will try your plan."

So Mary made a cheery fire in the prim and little-used sitting room. As the tidy tea table in the kitchen was ready for supper Nathan and Ben came in.

"Are you expecting company, Cousin Mary?" asked Nathan. "I see 'tother room lighted up!"

"We did expect company this evening, and I am happy to say we were not disappointed!" said Mary, laughingly, at the same time extending her hand for the package Ben was trying to extract from his overcoat pocket.

The package proved to be some well-preserved copies of a weekly and a few magazines which Mary had requested her mother to send to her, and after supper the whole family gathered around the center table in the sitting room and passed the evening in reading and talking over the contents of the various publications. Before a week passed by Farmer Peachblow subscribed for the weekly. The sons have acquired a taste for reading, books, magazines and papers have increased upon the premises; they seem to think home a pleasant place, and have discarded the acquaintances who once served to amuse their leisure hours; the old folks no longer worry lest the young folks prove unworthy sons or sprouts of the Peachblow stock, and this happy reform is entirely owing to the schoolma'am's strategy.

FOR YOUR HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Gwin & Mays Drug Co., West Main St.

300,000 MEN QUIT MINES

GENERAL STRIKE OCCURRED AT MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT.

COAL FAMINE NOT EXPECTED

Operators of Southwest Refuse to Grant Miners Wage Demands, Many States Affected.

Indianapolis, March 31.—Three hundred thousand organized miners of the bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas quit work Thursday midnight, pending settlement of a new wage scale.

President Thomas L. Lewis of the miners union declared a total of 300,000 miners had quit work.

Officers of the United Mine Workers of North America declared the walk-out was not a strike but merely a suspension of work because no wage scale had been made to replace the old scale which expired with the month of March. The miners demand an increase of pay in some instances of a cent a ton and in other instances more with certain changes in working conditions.

Confidence was expressed by the operators that there would be no general coal famine large supplies of fuel having been stored in anticipation of the walkout.

While the miners predict the suspension will be cut short by a prompt signing of wage scales some of the operators maintain that the mines may be kept closed for a month or longer.

The first settlement came in an announcement from Basil Ind. the center of the Indiana black coal field where the men's demands for a 5 cent increase was granted.

The conditions in the various states as reported to the national union headquarters follow:

Illinois—800 mines closed and 75,000 miners out joint conference on wages called for Monday in Chicago operators say men demand increase of 10 cents a ton possibility of a four month's shutdown two months supplies of coal on hand no immediate coal famine to Chicago industries.

Indiana—18,000 miners out conference arranged for Wednesday at Terre Haute.

Pennsylvania—40,000 men ordered out temporary scale expected by Saturday settlement of the powder question to be held in abeyance.

Iowa—Every mine in Iowa ordered closed pending settlement of the wage scale.

Missouri—Kansas—Oklahoma and Arkansas comprising the southwestern interstate fields—30,000 miners quit early settlement expected miners assert they have $400,000 to fight with.

Ohio—All miners ordered to quit state leader declares it is brief suspension at Lorain steel plant shut down and threw out 4,000 workmen because of coal shortage.

Oklahoma—13,000 men have been called out in Oklahoma Operators assert mines will probably be closed for some time as they cannot meet the demand for an increase in wages.

METEOR AS GREAT BALL OF FIRE

Visitor From Sky Strikes Earth, Causes Quake.

Missoula, Mont. March 31.—The flashing of a brilliant meteor having the appearance of a great ball of fire shooting through the sky spread panic over Western Montana late Tuesday evening. That it dashed into the earth somewhere above Ravalli on the Flathead Indian reservation was the conclusion drawn from the distant jar felt throughout this section of the country. The electrical disturbance extinguished all lights in Dixon Arlee and Perma. The Indians who witnessed the spectacle and felt the quake were in a state of terror. So brilliant was the meteor that an engineer on the Northern Pacific railroad, who was running out of Arlee threw on the air brakes and stopped his train believing that he had missed a block signal or that there was another train with electric headlights on ahead.

SIX KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

CATASTROPHE OCCURS NEAR THE TOWN OF WILBURTON.

Work Just Finished, but for Dynamite Men Would Have Emerged for Last Day.

Wilburton, Okla. March 31.—A terrific explosion occurred at 3 a. m. today in the lowest vein of coal mine No. 2 Smithtown owned by William Busby and associates in which six of the oldest and most experienced miners of the Wilburton district were instantly killed. Last of the dead William Phalen, Thad Cunningham, Julius Boyd, Menj Hoff, man William McMahan and M. Belcher.

The cause of the explosion has not been definitely determined but it is generally supposed to have been a windy shot which in turn set off a twenty five pound box of dynamite which is claimed by some to have been left in the mine.

The six miners had just finished their last days work before going out upon suspension pending an agreement of wages and the rope rider had sent down an empty car to bring them to the surface and had himself gone home. The pump man had also just come out and was a hundred yards away when the explosion took place and the six men who had been engaged upon the night shift in sinking the slope were all that remained in the mine at the time.

When the bodies were brought to the top it was found they had been literally cooked and that the force of the explosion had blown the coal dust into the flesh. In some cases the skin from the back of their hands and fingers was hanging in shreds. The short space of two minutes more and the car would have been at the top and their lives saved.

Will Phalen one of the dead men was one of the best posted Masons in eastern Oklahoma and the rest of the men were among the town's best citizens and were held in high esteem. A particularly sad feature of the catastrophe was that of Belcher, who was killed together with his two sons-in-law leaving three widows in one family. A total of twenty-two children were left orphans.

Desha, March 30.—After having lived in Arkansas all her life, Mrs. Margaret Hardin Craig was buried in Al-derbrook cemetery, near Desha, yester-

after which she moved to the vicinity of Jamestown. Mrs. Craig died

SOUTH MISSOURI ORCHARDS BURNED

COUNTRY.
Rains Bring Relief to the Stricken
Districts, Live Stock and Farm
Houses Destroyed.
Springfield, Mo., March 30.—The
sprinkle of rain which fell in Southwest Missouri today assisted a great deal in stopping the forest fires that
have been raging in several counties
for the past several days. Yesterday
seems to have been the worst day
since the place broke out in the different sections. The high winds were responsible for the damage. The greatest damage done was near Kosh-konong, Oregon county, where all
the buildings on the McNair fruit
farm company were destroyed, together with many fruit trees. The company is headed by J. C. McNair,
a St. Louis capitalist. This damage was done early this morning. Owing to the fact there were but few persons available at the time to fight
the flames, the contents of the buildings were destroyed.
The company of which Mr. McNair is president owns about 2,200 acres of orchards near St. Elmo. Most of the land is set in peach trees of the Elberta variety. Many of the peach trees were in full bloom and the
yield. The passing of the fire left acres of charred trees.
The wind was blowing a gale at
the time the fire crossed from the
timber to the orchards. A portion of the farm of the Few Acres Company
also was visited by the fire. A packing shed and other small buildings
were in the path of the fire and were
consumed; the loss in and around the McNair orchard being about $250-000.
The present drouth is the worst ever known in this section of the Ozark country for early spring. The hot winds have burned vegetation to
a crisp and in the timber belt the
dry leaves on the ground cause fire
to spread rapidly, the large and
small trees alike falling victims to
the fierce heat. The damage already has reached hundreds of thousands of dollars.
A telephone message from West Plains tonight says that there was no rain in that section today and that the fire is still raging in Oregon
county, but that there is no fire in Howell county as has been reported.
Much damage is reported in Ozark
county and it is said that a number
of farm houses have been destroyed
as well as quite a lot of livestock
having been burned to death. Reports from Galena, Stone county, state that
the rain which is falling there tonight has checked the fire and that no further damage is expected.

TAFT DISCUSSES POWER
MANY YEARS AT CAPITAL.
States Gain in Influence by Having Experienced Representatives.
Washington, March 31.—President
Taft, in an address before the Ohio
Society of Washington tonight, pointed out that the dominating power of the Eastern States of Congress lies in the fact that they keep men in office when they place them there. He contrasted the influence of the East
in legislative affairs with that of the West, and attributed the supremacy
of the former to the continuous service of legislative representatives.
"Why is it," asked the President,
"when the small states of the East
exercise so much power in Congress?"
"It is not because an Eastern man
has any more capacity in the matter
of legislation than a Western man—
certainly not more than an Ohio
man." It is because when the Eastern States get a good representative
they keep him as long as he lives,
and then he has an influence that
vastly exceeds the mere numerical representation of population.
"I don't know whether this is quite germane to the subject of this occasion. I feel as though we are all interested in having Ohio make herself felt in the legislation of this country by adopting a system that
will certainly bring about the weight
she is entitled to."
When the president had concluded,
Senator Dick, who was on the platform, grasped his hand and shook it enthusiastically. The senator, whose term expires with this congress and
who has a hard fight ahead for re-election, said something to Mr. Taft, who laughed aloud and said to the assembly of men and women from
his native state:
"Senator Dick has just told me he heartily indorses everything I have
said on this subject."
Ohio Society in Washington.
The president was the guest of honor at the meeting called for the purpose of organizing an Ohio society in Washington. Justice William
R. Day presided and subsequently
was elected president of the society.
Other speakers of the evening were
Senator Dick and Gen. Isaac R.
Sherwood and J. Warren Kiefer. The Ohio society was formally organized
with Justice Day as president; O. P.
Austin, chief of the Bureau of Statistics, secretary, and Frederick Michelberger, treasurer.

TAFT WILL SELL COAL LANDS IN OKLAHOMA
AFFAIRS OF THE FIVE TRIBES
TO BE SPEEDILY CLOSED UP.
Strong Opposition Is Expected From Certain Republican Senators.
LaFollette and Curtis Favor
Measure.
Washington, March 31.—Secretary
Ballinger, after a conference with President Taft, told members of the Oklahoma delegation today that the president is anxious to have the affairs of the Five Civilized Tribes
closed up speedily, and would have
the bill provide for the disposition of the segregated coal lands somewhat like coal lands are now disposed of by the general government
in the west—to the best bidder—
with the limitation that one man
shall not control more than 2,500
acres. The President's idea, it is said,
is to dispose of the matter speedily
and in a business-like way, yet at the same time with ample protection to the Indians and with a provision limiting the holdings in order to keep
the coal from falling into the hands of the monopoly.
It is expected that Secretary Ballinger will shortly recommend to the House Committee on Indian Affairs
the passage of the Creager bill with
certain modifications of the provision
for the sale of the coal lands.
Such a bill, it is understood, would meet with strong opposition from certain Republican Senators. LaFollette and Curtis both favor the sale of the coal to the Government for the better control of its sale to the consuming public, while all of the progressives are expected to resist any effort to let this vast supply of fuel fall into the hands of private individuals without ample safeguards to prevent combination among the operators and consequent exhorbitant high prices to the consumers.
LIVE STOCK PRICES SLUMP.
A Still Further Reduction Is Anticipated.
Kansas City, March 30.—Declines
of 10 to 20 cents a hundred pounds
on prices of cattle and hogs at the
stock yards today caused much discussion as to whether the maximum quotations in the extraordinary recent advances in the markets have been reached. Cattle sold 25 to 30 cents a hundred pounds below the high prices of last week. The setback was due partly to a moderate increase in supplies, but the more important cause was that the high prices, together with the unusual mild
weather for this season of the year have curtailed the consumption of meat.

MISSIONARY VISITS ADA

CHURCH TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Miss Ellen Stone, for Six Months Held
by Turkish Brigands for Ransom.
Gives Her Experiences While
a Captive.

The large auditorium of the First Methodist church was crowded to overflowing last night to hear Miss Ellen Stone relate her experience as a missionary and captive by Turkish brigands, demanding a ransom of $65,000 for her release

She is a most pleasing speaker and
held her audience spell-bound for more than an hour

A great many of our people are
familiar with the capture of Miss Stone in 1901 and the wonder is
how she lived through the six months
of torture and privations pending the payment of the ransom It is her intention to return to Turkey and resume her missionary work as soon
as congress makes final settlement
with the parties who secured her release

Her lecture was indeed a treat to
the citizenship of Ada

THE MAYOR AND ENGINEER AT BYRD'S MILL

Bring Back Specimens of Water For Analysis.

Mayor Little and City Engineer
Eckman went to Byrd's Mill Thursday and procured specimens of water from three different points in the Byrd's Mill stream

These gentlemen also procured
specimens of a mineral that had formed in the mill race which when
analysed will disclose those properties which might be objectionable to
the various industries using the water in their boilers

It is interesting however and fortunate as well that this formation is
not evident above a point one mile
below the head of the spring

Steps will be taken at once to ascertain the elevations or general topography of the earth between Ada
and this water supply

Specimens of both water and stone
may be seen at the News office

Dangerous Crisis in Balkin Only Temporarily Averted.

Paris, March 31—Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly, but perhaps temporarily, averted according to the views in well-informed diplomatic circles here, where for months it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia either to win the Province outright or at least to secure autonomy for the remainder of European Turkey.

Bulgaria for years has made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that their army is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brothers in Macedonia should remain under the domination of Turkey.

They realize that they cannot long sustain the burden of the army on its present footing. For the King, also, a successful war would mean the consolidation of the position of a dynasty imposed upon the Bulgarian people by the Powers. For both the king and the people therefore it appeared to be now or never.

The moment however was singularly unpropitious because Europe today unanimously supports the regime of the Young Turks at Constantinople and desires to give it a fair chance to regenerate Turkey. The last hope of King Ferdinand and the Bulgarian government disappeared when the King recently visited St. Petersburg and found that Russia refused to give either sympathy or support to an appeal to arms at this time. Bulgaria has yielded but as understood here only to see what diplomacy can do.

Acra From New Mexico to Wyoming in Grasp of Storm.

Denver, March 30—Heavy rains and snow and high winds are sweeping the entire Rocky mountain region north of central New Mexico to day. Telegraph service has been seriously interfered with and for several hours central Colorado was all but cut off from the outside world.

Heavy snow is reported at Santa Fe, N. M. with a temperature of 24 above a drop of 32 degrees since yesterday. The snow extends all the way to central Wyoming. Durango, Telluride and other mountain cities of Colorado report heavy snow and the storm in Denver almost took on the proportions of a mid-winter blizzard.

Muskogee, Okla., March 30—Muskogee has a professor principal of one of the ward schools, who refuses to be "fired" by the board of education. His name is F. M. Kimes, and he came from Kansas, Ill. last September. The board demanded Prof. Kimes' resignation, and elected a new man to succeed him. Prof. C. K. Clark of Tahlequah. The next morning Prof. Kimes and Prof. Clark both went to the Jefferson school and each insisted that he was principal. Kimes claims that he has a contract which provides his services shall not be terminated except upon thirty days notice, which he has not been given and intimates that he is still principal of the school that he proposes to indicate his willingness to serve and that the board is liable for his salary.

Boston's Bill Shows an Increase of More Than Half.

Boston, March 29—The price of Boston's favorite and noted edible—baked beans—has increased more than 33 1-3 per cent during the past two years and caused a decrease in the consumption of approximately 9 per cent. Two years ago beans retailed at 7 and 8 cents per quart while they now cost 10 and 11 cents. Boston's bean bill in 1909 was nearly $5,000,000 an increase of about $1,700,000 over the previous year notwithstanding the decrease in the amount used.

Whipped Cream Cakes

A cup of sugar and two tablespoons of butter creamed together. Add the beaten yolks of two eggs four tablespoons of milk a teaspoonful of vanilla and finally the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Mix into a cup of flour a teaspoonful of cream of tartar and a half teaspoonful of soda. Sift the flour into the cake batter and stir lightly. Bake in a shallow pan. When the cake has cooled off spread over it half a pint of cream sweetened and whipped to a stiff froth.

Doughnuts are much improved if they are coated with a layer of sugar as soon as they are taken from the stove. The best way to powder them is to put a small amount of confectioner's sugar in a paper bag and put several doughnuts in the bag at a time and then shake the bag holding the top of the bag closed. This will coat them with sugar quickly and more evenly than any other way.

Mock Olives

Take green plums, wash them, then change color with red and pink weak blue for 24 hours, drain and put in another brine adding a small teaspoonful of soda to each gallon of water. Bring to a boil when the plums will turn to an olive color. Pack at once in jars and fill with the brine brimming full seal at once. It stands several weeks before using.

By MRS. C. F. VAN PEARSE

Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do man, and Mrs. Farmer Peachblow was an industrious and well-to-do woman, but the sons of the family, Nathan and Ben, although good workers, well versed in the lore of their father's calling, and able to "turn a furrow" straight as a "bee line," were becoming more and more dissatisfied with home life—were growing fond of spending their rainy days and spare evenings at the village near the farm—were occasionally guilty of coming home with the odor of tobacco smoke and vile whisky upon their breaths, and this it was that troubled the father and mother and caused heartaches and wrinkles.

One November evening, as the old folks were sitting silent and alone by the kitchen fire, a knock was heard at the door, and to the summons to come in, a neighbor thrust in his head and exclaimed:

"Hain't time to stop, friends, been over to the store, and the postmaster gave me this letter for you—so I'll just hand it in, and be going on," and after a few more words the neighbor went his way.

The letter was for Mr. Peachblow, and the following is an exact copy of it:

"Princeton, November 1

"Dear Uncle I have graduated at last, and am anxious to teach a country school this winter. If your district is not already supplied with a teacher please use your influence to secure your school for me. As you are one of the directors and a good, kind uncle besides, I shall expect to hear a favorable answer soon. All well at home. Your affectionate niece

MARY BROWN

The result of this epistle was that Miss Mary Brown was installed, some three weeks after its receipt in the teacher's chair of the Peachblow district school.

Mary was a shrewd girl, warm hearted and sympathetic and she had not been long in her uncle's family before she discovered the state of affairs regarding the boys and determined to make an effort to change it for the better.

Nathan and Ben were both half in love with their pretty cousin and she knew right well that she could influence them in the wished for direction if anyone could—provided their mother would be cooperator. Accordingly, one Saturday afternoon, when the brothers appeared booted and spurred in readiness for their usual Saturday visit to the village lounging place she ran after them to the gate with the request that they would not fail to call at her post office and bring her the expected letter from home.

Now auntie, I'm going to tell you a secret. I have noticed how it worries you to have the boys staying out evenings with that idle set in the village. Mamma was troubled in the same way for a time when Brother Charlie was younger and we broke it up by tempting him to stay at home. Now don't be offended auntie—you know I love you dearly and wouldn't hurt your feelings for the world—but don't you think it rather dull for Nat and Ben such bright active boys to sit down in the kitchen every evening without anything to interest or amuse them? Uncle takes only the country paper, there are very few books in the house, there are no musical instruments, and, in fact they are almost compelled to go from home in search of variety and recreation. I propose that for the remainder of the winter we have a cheerful fire in the sitting room every evening that we have a good literary paper, and a couple of entertaining magazines to read and that we make ourselves so exceedingly agreeable here at home that the boys will enjoy staying with us. Shall we, auntie?

Mrs. Peachblow was a sensible woman, and she readily saw that there was something in it, so she replied:

"I'm willing to do anything in the world to keep my boys at home, and we will try your plan."

So Mary made a cheery fire in the prim and little used sitting room. As the tidy tea table in the kitchen was ready for supper Nathan and Ben came in.

We did expect company this evening, and I am happy to say we were not disappointed," said Mary, laughingly, at the same time extending her hand for the package Ben was trying to extract from his overcoat pocket.

The package proved to be some well preserved copies of a weekly and a few magazines which Mary had requested her mother to send to her, and after supper the whole family gathered around the center table in the sitting room and passed the evening in reading and talking over the contents of the various publications. Before a week passed by Farmer Peachblow subscribed for the weekly. The sons have acquired a taste for reading books, magazines and papers have increased upon the premises (they seem to think home a pleasant place, and have discarded the acquaintances who once served to amuse their leisure hours, the old folks no longer worry lest the young folks prove unworthy scions or sprouts of the Peachblow stock and this happy reform is entirely owing to the schoolma'am's strategy.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall's 93 Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall's 93 Hair Tonic will do as above stated it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall's 93 Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall's 93 Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Gwin & Mays Drug Co. West Main St.
